AN ORDER DECLARING MAY 17, 2023 AS A LOCAL HOLIDAY IN THE MUNICIPALITY OF MATNOG

WHEREAS, in Section 16 of the Republic Act No. 7160, otherwise known as the Local Government Code of the Philippines, states that "within their respective territorial jurisdictions, local government units shall ensure and support, among other things, the preservation and enrichment of culture";

WHEREAS, Municipal Ordinance No. 01-2005 provides that May 8-17 of every year be declared as Matunog Festival Celebration;

WHEREAS, the Festival is also a time for merriment as the Matnoganos' way of celebrating the tradition and culture and thanksgiving for a bountiful harvest;

WHEREAS, to fully observe the essence of the Matunog Festival, there is a need to allow all local residents to have one (1) day respite from their daily activities in order to allow them to prepare for the celebration with their families;

NOW THEREFORE, I, CATTLEYA M. SO, by virtue of the powers vested in me as Municipal Mayor of Matnog, Province of Sorsogon, do hereby declare the 17th day of May 2023 as Local Holiday in the Municipality of Matnog:

- a. It shall be a Non-Working Holiday that covers all government offices and attached agencies/offices stationed in the municipality except those agencies/offices whose functions involve the delivery of basic and health services, preparedness/response to disasters and calamities, and/or the performance of other vital services shall continue with their operations and render the necessary services.
- b. Classes at all levels both in public and private schools are hereby suspended.
